

Legal Documentation for Zone Project

1. End User License Agreement (EULA)

1.1. General Provisions

This End User License Agreement (hereinafter referred to as the "Agreement") governs the use of the Zone software (hereinafter referred to as the "Software") by the user (hereinafter referred to as the "User"). By installing, copying, or otherwise using the Software, the User agrees to all terms of this Agreement.

1.2. License

- The Software is provided on an "as-is" basis.
- The User receives a limited, non-exclusive, non-transferable license to use the Software.
- The User may not:
 - Decompile, modify, or reverse-engineer the code without the developer's permission;
 - Use the Software for illegal purposes;
 - Transfer the license to third parties.

1.3. Limitation of Liability

- The developer is not responsible for any losses resulting from the use of the Software.
- The Software may require access to the User's files, which is performed only with the User's permission.

1.4. Privacy and Data Processing

- The Software does not collect personal data without the explicit consent of the User.
- If integrated with third-party services, the User must comply with their terms of use.

2. Privacy Policy

2.1. Data Collection

The Software does not transmit data to third parties and does not store confidential information without the User's consent.

2.2. Data Usage

Collected data (such as file names, requested commands) is used exclusively for the local operation of the application and is not transmitted to the developer.

2.3. File Access

Functions related to file searching and processing require the User's permission and do not extend beyond local storage.

3. Terms of Use for AI Assistant (Algo)

3.1. Algo executes commands based on natural language processing algorithms.

3.2. Some functions may require access to files, reminders, and online resources.

3.3. Algo does not store data — all information is deleted after the session ends.

3.4. The User must adhere to ethical standards when interacting with the AI.

4. Copyright and Intellectual Property

The Zone software is the intellectual property of the developer. All rights reserved. Any commercial use of the Software without the developer's permission is prohibited.
